

2023 Technical Professionals Conference (TPC) Justification Letter

Our Value Proposition Statement says, "NSBE Professionals are the global brain trust of Black Engineers who provide top-tier talent, inspire the next generation of technical professionals, and serve as a catalyst for transforming the culture of engineering."

Whether you are a young technical professional just starting your journey, a professional breaking through barriers, or you have come to Convention to network with professionals who emulate our value statement, the Technical Professionals Conference (TPC) at #NSBE49 is where you want to be!

You can use this letter and conference expense calculator to request support to attend the 2023 Technical Professionals Conference.
