

Bobby Teachey II

Senior Project Manager – Construction Management

Joined Brownstone Construction Group in 2015 as a Project Manager in the Charleston area, with over 20+ years of Construction Management experience. Received his Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University, and his Masters in Project Management from Keller Graduate School of Management. He served as a Staff Sargent for eight years in the United States Army Reserve, a proud 2003 – 2004 Operation Iraqi Freedom War Veteran, and National Defense Medal recipient.

Currently, serves on Metro Chamber of Commerce Executive Board. In this role, he works with other industry leaders to help develop programming and engagement of the Charleston community, businesses, and leaders.

As a servant leader, Bobby has been a member and volunteer for the National Society of Black Engineers over 22 years, and has served in multiple leadership roles, chapter, regionally and nationally, upholding the torch of the Society and fulfilling the mission every day. While serving as a corporate recruiter and other Professional organizations, he has promoted the partnerships and development of the pre-college students and our collegian students. He is the current Vice President of the NSBE Charleston Professionals Chapter. Bobby plans to continue the mission of the National Society of Black Engineers with an understanding, the mission is not a resting place but the endless path forward.

He is a Board member for One80 Place Charleston, as he is dedicated to help end and prevent homelessness through the mission and vision of One80 Place. He is also a volunteer Mentor and Board Chair with ACE Mentors of Greater Charleston, where he enables his Mentee to develop positive relationships by empowering him to reach his full potential through Architect, Construction, and Engineering.

Bobby's commitment to service and his personal mandate to solve problems and create opportunities is woven into every facet of his life. His vast community service work includes many organizations and embodies a reputation of selfless service, determination, and making progress.
